WHY FRED HODGES

Fred Hodges is a renowned international coach specializing in Olympic disciplines. With a track record of success at all levels, from grassroots to FEI, Fred has trained championship-winning teams, such as the Vale of Aylesbury Pony Club and the British Eventing Central Youth Team. His influence extends globally, with coaching stints in the USA, Ireland, and China, where he helps develop coaches and show-jumping riders competing at FEI 1.40 classes.

Fred's commitment to excellence is unwavering. He regularly completes Continuing Professional Development (CPD) to stay up to date with the latest equestrian techniques and trends, ensuring you receive the most cutting-edge training available.

As a senior lead assessor for the BHS excellence pathway, Fred mentors professionals working towards their BHS exams. He's not just a coach – he's a successful competitor too, with achievements in eventing at FEI 3* level and dressage up to Prix Saint George. Fred's exceptional talent shines through in his training, producing elite dressage horses and achieving impressive results in RoR championships. He continues to work with a diverse range of horses on behalf of their owners.

JONTY EVANS - A TALE OF TRIUMPH OVER ADVERSITY

Prepare to be captivated by Jonty Evans, an Olympic eventer who, in 2018, faced a life-changing brain injury after a fall while competing in Ireland. His incredible journey of resilience, determination, and the power of a positive mindset took him from a coma to regaining consciousness, learning to talk and walk, and ultimately, back into the saddle just six months later.

Jonty, who competed for Ireland at the 2016 Rio Olympics, defied all odds to make a triumphant return to competitive riding. His inspiring talk will touch on themes like overcoming adversity, setting and achieving goals, the power of positivity, digging deep to discover resilience, and the courage to start anew. Don't miss this opportunity to hear his incredible story firsthand!

Don't miss out on this opportunity to learn from the best and experience the magic of the Unicorn Equestrian Centre with Fred by your side! 🐾🌟
